

WELCOME TO LAKESHORE WRITER'S GROUP

Monday, September 16th, 2024 @ 7:00pm

MEETING OUTLINE

It is with much excitement that I begin another "session" of our group. Summer went fast as it always does, and as I have mentioned, with it has come my retirement of 30ish years of school bus driving. (sorry, I just like to say it...!). Hmm...I just thought of a great homework assignment... As we approach the 16th, I have to say that I truly look forward to seeing all of you. Each of you has a talent, something to offer, inspiration, a gift. Whether you realize it or not, I am the one who benefits the most by spending this time with all of you. So, I thank you! Now, let's get started, shall we?

◆ Warm-up Exercise and Read Back:

I've been toying with an idea for the warm-up prompts. I may have mentioned that we could take turns doing it. Abigail, if you are planning on being at the meeting, I would so appreciate it if you would start us off. (I will have a prompt prepared in case you don't really want to do it.)

◆ Just for Fun Homework:

In the spirit of my having retired (you knew this was coming), write approximately 130 words telling about something monumental that happened in your life over the summer months.

◆ Topic Thought:

This is really giving me fits right now. I always want to come up with something genius that everyone has something in which to contribute. So I am just going to ask you to be thinking with me. We'll come up with something, I'm sure!

◆ Trivia

"The work is always accomplished one word at a time."
